STATE COLLEGE OF KENTUCKY, Lexington. - - Kentucky.

The Agricultural and Mechanical (State College) of Kentucky offers the following courses of study, viz: Agricultural, horticultural, chemical, biological, mathematical, physical, normal school, classical, mechanical engineering, electrical engineering, civil engineering, mining engineering, each of which extends over four years and leads to a degree. Post graduate studies are also provided, leading to a master's degree. Each course of study is organized under a separate faculty. The general faculty number nearly fifty professors and instructors. County appointees receive tuition, room rent in dormitories, fuel and light, and if they remain ten months, traveling expenses. The laboratories and museums are large, well equipped, comprehensive and modern.

The Legislature appropriated $60,000 for a college home for young women, and $30,000 for drill hall and gymnasium for men. Both buildings are completed and in use. Military tactics and science are fully provided for as required by Congress.

Graduates from the several courses of study readily find excellent positions and liberal remuneration. The demand is largely in excess of the ability of the college to supply. Last year the matriculation was 750. Specialists with the necessary number of assistants have charge of each department of natural science. Summer schools are provided for pedagogy, engineering and instruction in science.

The State College of Kentucky, though bearing hitherto the title of "college," is the only institution in the Commonwealth doing in any proper sense university work.

The completion of the college home for young women provides facilities for good board and lodging. It is equipped with all modern conveniences, including bath rooms and room for physical culture. It is heated by steam and lighted by electricity.

An opportunity is thus afforded to them of a thorough education in classics, modern languages, literature, science, mathematics, logic, metaphysics, history and political economy. No other institution in the State offers advantages for education of women at all comparable to those offered by the State College of Kentucky.

THE TOWN OF JACKSON,

As Seen by the Editor of the Herald, Is the Best in Eastern Kentucky.

The editor of this paper attended the meeting of the Senatorial District Committee at Jackson on Wednesday of last week, and was impressed with improvements in that town within the past year or two. Indeed there are so many improvements since his visit a few years ago that the town has the appearance of a city, and one of the main features is the good order noticeable on every side. During the two days and nights he spent there he never heard a boisterous or obscene word, the crack of a pistol or gun, or any other unseemly noise that would jar the most nervous person.

The town has an electric light plant, but it was not in operation at the time for some cause. The streets are being graded, new buildings are in the course of erection, and others just completed are being painted. All around and about is the hustle of business, and from the wholesale and retail establishments of Hargis Bros. and Day Bros. & Co., respectively, down to lunch stands, all seem to be doing well. Every comfort for the inner man is provided for in three hotels and several boarding houses, all of which are well patronized with transient and regular boarders, and everywhere may be found ice water, so refreshing in these hot days. There are three saloons in operation, from which the city receives a revenue of $3,450, and this is applied to the improving of the streets, police protection, etc. And the police force, while composed of only six or seven men, is as good as any similar force in the country. The men on duty are so watchful that an offender is incarcerated almost instantly and always pays the penalty.

There are three churches—Presbyterian, Christian and Methodist—and a large following of Baptists who have no church building.

All the former citizens of this place now residing there are well pleased with the place, and are pulling for the upbuilding of the town.

The Hustler and News, respectively, keep the people informed of local and current events, and in turn appear to be well patronized with job work and advertising.

A visitor there today would hardly believe that as late as 1851 the people then saw the first four-wheeled vehicle ever introduced into that section. But according to Bud Sewell, of that place, and Allie Landrum, of our county, such is a fact. They told us that the people of Knott and Perry were on hand to witness the coming of the wagon, and that Uncle Pres Trimble, of our town, was the gentleman who drove it in. Bud Sewell told of the first pair of shoes he ever owned. It was in November of that year that he was at the store and tannery of his uncle, Tom Sewell, when that gentleman asked him why he was barefooted? He replied that he had no shoes, when his uncle measured off a piece of half-tanned hide and handed him. Bud took the bundle and walked to Frozen Creek, where a cousin of his made him the shoes. Allie Landrum said his father ran a store there, that goods was brought up the river in a push boat, and he was at the landing when the boat arrived in the fall of 1851. He had brought him a pair of boots, the first he ever possessed. Allie put them on forthwith, and in a few hours every boy in town had in turn tried them on.

But now things are very different between that town and Hazel Green, and mainly because we have not been fortunate to secure a railroad. Briefly Jackson is easily the best business place in Eastern Kentucky. And the pride of the place is the S. P. Lees Institute, a school equal to any in the land.

Henry Pieratt received a telegram yesterday from Bushon, Ill., notifying him that his father was much worse and to come at once. He left last night for Torrent to take the train this morning, and hopes to reach Bushon tonight.

State Senator Charley Sublett, of Salyersville, was in town yesterday shaking hands with his many friends. Questioned as to the chances of his father, Hon. Isaac Sublett, for the nomination for Circuit Judge at the primary to be held August 20th, he replied that they were indeed flattering.

On Tuesday night Jack Miller, of Lee City, took an overdose of morphine, whether by accident or suicidal intent is not known. But Dr. Carroll was called to see him yesterday morning and found him unconscious. He also found an empty morphine bottle, but not knowing what quantity it may have contained he could not tell whether it was worth while to pump his stomach or not. Since the above was written a telephone message from Dr. Carroll states that there is no hope for him; that he had bought and evidently taken nearly a full bottle, one-eighth of an ounce.

CANDIDATE FOR STATE SENATOR.

Elks' Creed.

"Don't keep the alabaster boxes of your love and tenderness sealed up until your friends are dead. Fill their lives with sweetness. Speak approving, cheering words while their ears can hear them, and while their hearts can be thrilled and made happier; the kind things you meant to say when they were gone, say before they go. The flowers you meant to send for their coffins, send to brighten and sweeten their homes before they leave them. If my friends have any alabaster boxes laid away, full of fragrant perfumes of sympathy and affection, which they intend to break over my body, I would rather they would bring them out in my weary, troubled hours and open them that I may be refreshed and cheered while I need them."

"I would rather have a plain coffin without a flower, a funeral without an eulogy, than a life without the sweetness of love and sympathy. Post mortem kindness does not cheer the burdened spirit. Flowers on the coffin cast no fragrance back over the weary way."

The faults of our brothers we write upon the sand; their virtues upon the tablets of love and memory.

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Goldbrick, of Colusa, Cal., writes: "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me." Just as good for Liver and Kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists.

The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Charles H. Fletcher

This issue closes the nineteenth year of THE HERALD's existence, notwithstanding we inaugurated the paper on the 4th day of March, 1885. The time between the two dates represents lost issues on account of bad roads, illness of the editor, etc. We were a perfect stranger to the people of this section, and handicapped by a debt for the entire outfit, and we soon realized that to make a paper go in this community, where the people were not of the reading kind, would require extraordinary effort upon our part. This we proceeded to exert, and by dint of due industry soon had the satisfaction of knowing that our work was appreciated by some very staunch friends at least. Then came the lamented Max O'Rell, who in his tour of this country picked THE HERALD as the ideal American country journal, and through his book made it famous throughout all of Europe. The leading papers of this country copied from it ever and anon, so that in a few years it had both national and international fame. Meanwhile it worked for the up-building of every enterprise, moral and material, that would benefit the country, and enjoyed a living patronage. This, owing to the fame it had attained, would have grown but for our environment. The people did not encourage our advertising patrons to an extent to justify all of them in continuing business with us, and some we lost. Others, more persistent, have continued with us the while, and the result has invariably proved their wisdom. During the time papers have sprung up over the whole territory which was formerly exclusively THE HERALD's, like mushrooms, and like mushrooms, have gone the way of things forgotten. That THE HERALD had an appreciative patronage is proved by the fact that it has outlived all of them, and while its life has not been as luxurious as we wished, we have been content to hope, and still hope. This still booms us up, for we have great faith in the future of this country. And now, thanking all who have stood by us in the past, and hoping the patronage of yet others, we close the nineteenth year, with good will to all and malice toward none.

Every Movement Hurts

When you have rheumatism, Muscles are stiff and sore and joints are painful. Hood's Sarsaparilla goes right to the spot in this disease, neutralizes the acidity of the blood and radically cures. Accept no substitute.

USUALLY when you hear a man say his friends are urging him to run for office he is talking through his hat in a voice of dreamland, but from what we have heard and seen we believe the people of Morgan county are insistent upon Joe Pieratt, of Maytown, to make the race for Sheriff. Four or five prospective candidates, everyone of whom would run unless he consents to do so, have made a proposition to withdraw if he will make the race. This we have from reliable men in Morgan county, and there is no occasion to doubt it in any particular from evidence of our own eyes. Morgan has been peculiarly unfortunate in her selection of men to fill this position, and everybody is convinced that in Joe Pieratt they will have the right man for the right place. He is a farmer, identified with the material and moral interests of the county: honest, sober, and all else that is essential, and should he consent to make the race will win by a rousing majority. If he concludes to do so, and it now looks that way, it is more than probable that he will place his announcement in THE HERALD, so the people generally may consider his claims.

Dr. Nickell reports the birth of a girl to the wife of Rev. Jeff Edwards, of Laurel, on Saturday last.

Caleb Allen, candidate for Assessor, was in town yesterday shaking hands with friends and pushing his candidacy in a quiet way.

Mrs. E. M. Russell has the thanks of the editor and his better seven-eighths for a fine head of cabbage and several messes of fine cornfield beans.

Rolla Clark, of the Cox mill neighborhood, had a part of one of his thumbs accidentally sawed off while fixing a circular saw yesterday. Dr. Nickell dressed the wound.

Here's the First.

(Cincinnati Enquirer.)

I noticed in your issue of July 15 an article stating that the campaign poets would have a hard row to hoe to find a rhyme for Parker. I submit the following:

A cloud overshadowed the Democrats,
And dimmed the eight years past,
But soon the scene will be transformed
Into blue skies at last.

The convention met and yet the clouds!
Would surely have been darker,
Had not a brilliant star shone forth
In the person of Judge Parker.

Rheumatism

What is the use of telling the rheumatic that he feels as if his joints were being dislocated?

He knows that his sufferings are very much like the tortures of the rack. What he wants to know is what will permanently cure his disease.

That, according to thousands of grateful testimonials, is

Hood's Sarsaparilla

It promptly neutralizes the acid in the blood on which the disease depends, completely eliminates it, and strengthens the system against its return. Try Hood's.

Mrs. G. C. Mann, of Dan, Ky., and little baby, Mattie Lee, are visiting her mother, Mrs. A. P. Dye, of this place, and will remain several days. Mr. Mann, who came here with them, left Wednesday for home, where he will take up a job of pipe hauling under J. W. Cravens, of this place.

Any soldier who served in the Philippines between the following dates, January 12, 1899, and June 30, 1901, by a recent decision of the Court of Claims is entitled to two months extra pay. For particulars write Mervin B. Hilton, 1408 Sixth street, Charleston, Ill.

Ben Bigstaff, of Frozen, Presbyterian evangelist, passed through here Monday en route to Menefee to see some friends. But he came here to see Mr. Allen, a gentleman of Millersburg, who is sojourning at the springs, and who has been a friend of Ben's ever since the war.

Nelson Bergy, who has been working in and around Hazel Green for the past few months, left for his home at Winchester Tuesday morning. Mr. Bergy made many friends and acquaintances while here, many of whom will regret to hear of his sudden departure from our midst.

"The Twentieth Century Home" is retaining the typographical excellence and artistic make-up that won such universal praise for its initial number six months ago. Its popularity proves it to be a giant among the woman's magazines. The August number is excellent in every detail and is beautifully illustrated.

D. N. Cottle and W. T. Phillips, of West Liberty, were in town on Tuesday en route to Blackwater. Mr. Phillips is a deputy sheriff and prospective candidate for high sheriff, and the presumption obtains that he was out canvassing, though Hazel Green is not in his bailiwick.

Curt Lacy recently sent a ring each to several of his friends here, among them Dr. Nickell, H. F. Pieratt, and the writer. The rings are of German silver, and the sets some kind of composition, made by prisoners in the pen, and traded for by Curt, who swaps his tobacco allowance for them. While of no special value intrinsically, the gifts show that he appreciates the friendship of his acquaintances hereabout.

Robert Elam, a well-known politician and prominent citizen of Morgan county, died at his late residence near West Liberty Saturday night last. He was buried Sunday with Masonic honors, H. F. Pieratt and Judge Wheeler attending from this place as representatives of Mizpah Lodge. He was aged about 57 years, and the large crowd attending the obsequies attested the affection for him.

The newest and most important weapon of war at the present time is the submarine, and the most interesting submarine of the moment is the "Protector," invented by Simon Lake and recently taken out of the country in a mysterious fashion. Sidney Mornington tells the whole story of Lake's efforts and successes in an elaborately illustrated article, which is the leading feature of the August "Cosmopolitan."

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Caskey, who have been visiting relatives and friends in Missouri and taking in the World's Fair at St. Louis, arrived home Friday very much pleased with their trip. Mr. Caskey says that the rain interfered materially with the attendance at the fair, but for all that there were many things to please those who braved the weather. He thinks everybody who can do so should go, as it is of itself a whole lifetime converted into a couple of weeks' sight-seeing.

Sponser Cooper, the veteran journalist and proprietor and publisher of the Hazel Green Herald, was in our city the first of the week, looking after his interests as a candidate for the Democratic nomination of State Senator. He has done yeoman service for the party, never having before asked for office, and it is the sincere hope of the Hustler that Bro. Cooper will receive the consideration and reward his services so well merit. A more capable or deserving man would be hard to find.—Jackson Hustler.

We had a large court in Lee City on Saturday. The following persons were tried for disturbing public worship: Gilbert Craig, Busle Dyer and Nip Stricklin. They were fined $20.00 and costs in each case, which amounted to about $27.00 each, and they will have to work eight hours a day until the fines and costs are paid. The Judge says that if anybody else commits such an offense he will find something else for them to do.

AFTER USING.

Dragging Pains

2825 Keeley St.,
CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 2, 1902.

I suffered with falling and congestion of the womb, with severe pains through the groins. I suffered terribly at the time of menstruation, had blinding headaches and rushing of blood to the brain. What to try I knew not, for it seemed that I had tried all and failed, but I had never tried Wine of Cardui, that blessed remedy for sick women. I found it pleasant to take and soon knew that I had the right medicine. New blood seemed to course through my veins and after using eleven bottles I was a well woman.

Maudie Bush

Mrs. Bush is now in perfect health because she took Wine of Cardui for menstrual disorders, bearing down pains and blinding headaches when all other remedies failed to bring her relief. Any sufferer may secure health by taking Wine of Cardui in her home. The first bottle convinces the patient she is on the road to health.

ONE FULL QUART OF WHISKEY FREE

We know the meaning of words and will do as we say. We claim to be the lowest-priced Whiskey House and the largest Mail Order Whiskey Concern in the South. All the North Carolina Whiskey we sell is good—there's no bad. People here wouldn't adulterate if they knew how—they are honest! Most whiskey sellers are noted for mixing, blending and watering. We sell more genuine old whiskey and less water than any known competitor. "Casper's 11 Year Old" Whiskey is a liquid joy! It's made by honest people in the mountains of North Carolina, in old-style copper stills, just as it was made by our grandfathers. First-rate whiskey is sold at $5.00 to $6.00 per gallon, but it's not any better than "Casper's 11 Year Old." It must please or we will buy it back. We have a capital of $50,000, and the People's National Bank and the Piedmont Savings Bank of this city will tell you our word is good. To introduce this old, honest whiskey, we offer four Full Quarts of "Casper's 11 Year Old"—two sample bottles, one 15, one 18 year old—a cork-screw and a drinking glass—all for $2.95. If $2.95 is sent we will double the above and put in free One Full Quart Extra. We have some of this whiskey only 7 years old, and will send five-gallon keg for $10 or will furnish twenty full quart bottles on receipt of $11 and give free cork-screw, drinking glass and sample, making this whiskey cost less than $2.50 per gallon delivered. We ship in plain boxes with no marks to indicate contents, and Prepay all Express. Buyers West of Texas, Kansas, Nebraska and Idaho must add 20 cents per quart extra.

[EDITOR'S NOTE]—Before permitting the above whiskey advertisement to appear in our columns, we investigated the firm through their Bankers. We cheerfully endorse them, and friends in need of pure whiskeys for medicinal use need not hesitate to order sample lot.
